

Division of Health and Humanities

Two students will be accepted into the program for the academic year 2021-22.

One admission will be restricted to a student who has an active UGC NET (or equivalent) fellowship for 5 years

Eligibility

Health and Humanities
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Qualifying degree<ol style="list-style-type: none">a. Master's degrees (MSc/MPhil) in Public Health, Sociology, Psychology, Public Policy, Anthropology, Social Work, Nursing, Bioethics, Lawb. Post graduate degree (MD) in Community Medicine, General Medicine, Immunology

Areas of Research and Supervisor

Dr Manjulika Vaz	Vaccine hesitancy among the general public (Motivations and barriers towards vaccinations in urban and rural Bangalore)
-------------------------	---
