

Division of Clinical Research and Training St. John's Medical College & Research Institute

Bengaluru, India

5th Annual One-week course Clinical Trials Training Program

Sponsored by NBM-BIRAC

Nov 22 to 27, 2025
(6 days in-person)

RCT Designs & Analysis

- Large simple trials
- Factorial
- Non-Inferiority
- Cluster Randomized,
- Adaptive Trials
- Stepped Wedge Design
- Interrupted Time Series
- Decentralized Clinical Trials
- Real World and Pragmatic Trial
- Study specific protocol

Statistics:

- Sample size for different RCT designs
- Parametric & non-parametric tests
- Survival analysis

Techniques:

- Randomization
- Blinding
- Allocation concealment

Operations and Regulatory:

- Awareness of Clinical Trials Rules & Regulations
- Managing and reporting AEs/SAEs
- Good Documentation Practice
- Overview of Data Management

Registration fee : There are NO REGISTRATION fees. Lunch, refreshments and accommodation will be provided. Travel bursary for eligible participants*

Application and Selection Process:

- Statement of purpose.
- Two pager CV
- Letter of deputation by HOD on letterhead
- Selection will be done by a committee
- Deadline to apply: 25 Oct 2025
- Selection will be initiated between 5th to 7th Nov 2025.

Refer to the SJRI website (below) for template.

Faculty:

St. John's Medical College and Research Institute.

Venue:

St. John's Research Institute, Bangalore, India.

Methods:

1. Pre- and post-training assessments.
2. Interactive lectures and group activities.
3. Hands-on sessions on data management and statistics.
4. Case-based discussions.
5. Feedback from peers and faculty on group presentations

Who can apply:

For Investigators and Clinical Trial Managers

- Health professionals from academic institutes (Medical, Nursing, Pharmacy and related fields who have completed graduation).
- Experience or keen interest in the conduct of clinical trials.

For details contact :

Dr. Denis Xavier MD, M.Sc (Clin. Epi), Course Director, Professor & Head, Pharmacology; Head, Division of Clinical Research & Training, St. John's Medical College and Research Institute, Koramangala, Bangalore- 560 034. Ph: 080 4946 7023/7084/7086
Mobile: 8867298195/ 8088759815 (9:00 am to 5:00 pm), rct_training@sjri.res.in

* Conditions apply.

For more details:

https://sjri.res.in/clinicalresearch/activity_details/752

Registration:

https://bit.ly/BIRAC_CT_StJohns_2025

